Amendment of section 26A

4. The Regulations are amended in section 26A—

(a) by deleting “registrable persons” and substituting “registrable persons or the senior managing official”; and

(b) by deleting “registrable person” and substituting “registrable person or the senior managing official”.

Amendment of heading to Division 3

5. The Regulations are amended by deleting the heading to Division 3 and substituting “Disclosure to Persons with a Legitimate Interest”.

Deletion and substitution of sections 30 and 31

6. The Regulations are amended by deleting sections 30 and 31 and substituting the following—

“Criteria for determining a legitimate interest

30. A person has a legitimate interest in inspecting disclosable beneficial ownership information in relation to an Anguilla company, if the person is a member of the public who—

(a) is—

(i) engaged in journalism on a regular or frequent basis or bona fide academic research;

- (ii) acting on behalf of a civil society organisation whose purpose includes the prevention or combating of money-laundering, its predicate offences or terrorist financing; or
- (iii) is seeking that information in the context of a potential or actual business relationship or transaction with the Anguilla company concerned; and
- (b) has a legitimate interest in that disclosable beneficial ownership information for the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating, combating or prosecuting money laundering or its predicate offences or terrorist financing.”.

Application to the Commission for determination that a person has a legitimate interest

31. (1) A person may apply to the Commission for a determination that the person has a legitimate interest in inspecting disclosable beneficial ownership information relating to an Anguilla company.

(2) An application under subsection (1) must be accompanied by—

- (a) in the case of an application by a person referred to in section 30(a)(i) or (ii), evidence—
  - (i) of the applicant’s credentials and identity;
  - (ii) in the case of a person acting on behalf of a civil society organisation, that the purposes of the civil society organisation include the prevention or combating of money-laundering, its predicate offences or terrorism financing;
- (b) in the case of an application by a person referred to in section 30(a)(iii), evidence—
  - (i) of the applicant’s identity;
  - (ii) that the applicant is seeking to inspect the disclosable beneficial ownership information in relation to the Anguilla company in the context of an actual or potential business relationship or transaction with the Anguilla company about which the disclosable beneficial ownership information is sought;
  - (iii) of the nature of the actual or potential business relationship or transaction with the Anguilla company about which the disclosable beneficial ownership information is sought; and
- (c) in the case of every application—
  - (i) evidence that the disclosable beneficial ownership information sought by the applicant is sought for a purpose specified in section 30(b);
  - (ii) any other documents or information that the applicant relies on in support of the application;

(3) The Commission may—

- (a) require an applicant to provide it with any documents, information and evidence, in addition to that specified in subsection (2), that it reasonably requires to determine the application;
- (b) require any documents and information provided to be verified in such manner as it may specify.

(4) If, before the determination by the Commission of an application—

- (a) there is a material change in any information or documentation provided by the applicant to the Commission in connection with the application; or
- (b) the applicant discovers that any information or documentation provided is incomplete, inaccurate or misleading;

the applicant must give the Commission immediate written details of the change or of the incomplete, inaccurate or misleading information or documentation.
